

GOOD FRIDAY

Good Friday is observed on the Friday before Easter Sunday and commemorates the crucifixion of Jesus Christ. It is a solemn day of remembrance and is often marked by fasting, prayer, and attending church services focused on Christ's sacrifice

